Headline:
Rather cloudy, breezy and damp overnight. A mild night.

This Evening and Tonight:
Largely dry and windy this evening, although it will become rather cloudy, with some outbreaks of patchy light rain moving in from the west overnight. Winds will ease and it will stay mild and frost-free. Minimum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Sunday:
Probably rather cloudy and damp in the west, with patchy rain here stalling and perhaps returning westwards later. Brightest in the east throughout, and again generally very mild. Light winds. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Monday probably on the cloudy side, with patchy rain again making erratic progress eastwards but fading later. Drier and brighter, but breezier towards midweek. Staying mild.
